

2018 WSSA CONFERENCE VENDORS

CORRECTIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION - WISCONSIN: Founded in 1984, CEA is a non-profit, professional education association. Correctional education sites in Wisconsin include jails, juvenile and adult state institutions and a federal prison.

DCF/DFES/BWF/PARTNER TRAINING SECTION: (Madison, WI) Serves as a vital link between policy development and program implementation, training thousands of Wisconsin Economic Support and Employment and Training professionals, to implement progressive programs leading to higher levels of self sufficiency and a better prepared workforce.

EXPRESSIVE DOMAIN: Showcases the artistic talents of Patricia A. Hawkenson, Eau Claire. On display and for sale were stained glass kaleidoscopes, jewelry, jewelry boxes, tapestry handbags and other beautiful art work. Patricia also writes poetry and novels. (Patricia Hawkenson's Mother was Fran Snippen, a very active and dedicated WSSA member, a district chair and past secretary on the Executive Board).

OTTAWA UNIVERSITY: Founded in 1865 and continually accredited since 1914, Ottawa University is a nonprofit, private liberal arts institution dedicated to preparing students for lifetimes of enlightened faith, exemplary service, inspired leadership and personal significance. It offers students a caring, all-inclusive community experience that encompasses inspired leadership, measured impact and unparalleled support for personal growth.

RAWHIDE INC.: (New London, WI) Since 1965 Rawhide has helped troubled teen boys change their lives by providing residential care and counseling. It is a faith-based, non-profit organization, offering a unique blend of academic, work experience and moral training to help them become productive members of the community.

SEQUEL YOUTH AND FAMILY SERVICES: Sequel is a privately owned company. It develops and operates programs for people with behavioral, emotional or physical challenges. Their mission is to prepare clients to lead responsible and fulfilling lives by providing mentoring, education and living support with a safe and structured environment.

WILDTREE: Wildtree has products in which you can create simple, nutritious and delicious meals in no time. They are all natural and organic products to ensure that every product meets the highest quality standards. Products on display and orders taken for natural and organic products.

WISCONSIN CHALLENGE ACADEMY: Located at Fort McCoy, WI, it is a 17-month program divided into two phases for boys and girls (16 years 9 months but not yet 19 years old) who have dropped out, been expelled or at least one year behind in high school credits. Phase 1 is a 5 1/2 month residential program and Phase 2 is a post residential program. 76% of the graduated are working full-time or attending school one year after graduation.

WISCONSIN COUNCIL ON PROBLEM GAMBLING (Green Bay, WI) provides resources, public awareness and education on problem and pathological gambling disorders while maintaining strict neutrality on the issue of legalized gambling. Treatment provides referrals, crisis center information, in-patient centers and many other community resources, and offers self-help information.